CAMP RULES:

To assure that you enjoy your stay at Emoyeni we have implemented some basic rules. Please acquaint yourself and your group of these rules:

- The right of admission is reserved
- All communal areas are serviced on a daily basis. Please bring own towels and bedding along. Tents and chalets will only be cleaned by our staff on specific request.
- Quads and off-road motorcycles are allowed in the resort – but please be respectful to the other guests and only ride in plantation areas away from the camp.
- Strictly no smoking inside the accommodation, candles or mosquito coils are not allowed in the tents. Please respect the no-smoking rule in the kitchen area.
- If you need any washing done, it should be arranged with management only.
- Camp security is relatively good but please do not leave cash or any other valuables lying around or in tents when not there.
- Please keep the gates to the camp closed as we do have dogs at the camp. We do not advise bookings with children under the age of 7yrs.
- Parents are responsible for the conduct of their children and they must be supervised at all times.
- Children must be under the direct supervision of their parents when using the swimming pool area.
- No loud music is allowed in the camp.
- No kitchen utensils etc. are to be removed or used outside the kitchen area.
- Please use your own cool box to cool your drinks. Fridges and freezers are reserved for food only.
- Fisherman – unfortunately we don't allow the cleaning of fish in the camp or the use of our fridges/freezers for fish. Please bring your own freezers for this purpose.
- Respect other people and their property during your stay with us.
- Tips for staff must be handed to management to make sure all staff benefit from this.
- Please save water.

Enjoy your stay!
